Amash and Jones request briefing on intelligence leaks and allegations regarding administration officials and campaign aides

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Reps. Justin Amash (R-Mich.) and Walter Jones (R-N.C.) today sent a letter to Attorney General Jeff Sessions, Federal Bureau of Investigation Director James Comey, and Acting Director of National Intelligence Michael Dempsey requesting a briefing for all members of Congress on recent anonymous leaks by U.S. intelligence officials and on allegations made about Trump administration officials and campaign aides.

The letter is attached.
